

CERTIFICATE IN EATING DISORDERS

This is an interprofessional, online concentration/certificate 9-credit program that will provide graduate students in various behavioral health disciplines and clinical nutrition a basic foundation in the eating disorder field. The program is designed to train students in an interprofessional way, considered best practice in healthcare education. The programs that this concentration/certificate is available to are the following graduate programs: counselor education, social work, marriage and family therapy, school psychology, graduate psychiatric nursing, and clinical nutrition.

Code	Title	Credits
COUN 5448	Eating Disorders: Etiology, Assessment, and Interprofessional Teaming	3
COUN 6560	Eating Disorders: Specialized Treatment	3
COUN 6561	Eating Disorder Prevention	3
Total Credits		9