

PUBLIC RELATIONS MAJOR

Requirements

The major in Public Relations is a 33-credit course major for undergraduate students that will engage students in the study of strategic communication and prepare students for a broad range of careers. The Public Relations major consists of 11 three-credit courses. All Public Relations majors complete a set of seven required courses known as public relations foundations. Public relations majors must also complete one writing course, one ethics course, and two electives. With the aid of the communication faculty, students have the ability to focus their studies in several areas of interest and to develop a personalized trajectory that best suits their theoretical and applied interests. Public Relations majors are strongly encouraged to complete minors related to their areas of interest, to continue their foreign language beyond the intermediate level, to study abroad, enroll in service-learning courses, and to pursue internships that allow for applied learning of theoretical material.

Students are encouraged to meet with faculty advisors to design a comprehensive academic plan that takes advantage of the varied offerings in the Communication Department as well as from complimentary majors, minors and programs across the University to fulfill their public relations major.

Total Credits		33

Total Credits 33

¹ COMM 1101 and COMM 1102 are the foundational courses in the public relations major. Students should plan to take both courses during the same semester, preferably during their first or second year. COMM 1101 and COMM 1102 should be completed before taking the 2000, 3000, or 4000-level courses.

² Students complete COMM 4999, the required capstone course, during their senior year.

³ A course taken as a required course can not “double count” as an elective.

Notes:

- Under special circumstances, and with the approval from the Department Chair, double majors may “double count” up to two courses from their second major as public relations electives. Some second major and minor programs may also choose to “double count” public relations courses to satisfy the second major or minor requirements. Students should consult those second major or minor chairs for approval.
- Internships (COMM 4980) may be counted toward the major only once. Although two internships can be completed for academic credit (up to 6 credits), only 3 credits will count toward the Public Relations major.
- Independent studies do not count toward the Public Relations major.

2 Public Relations Major

- Special topics courses (COMM 4339 and COMM 4900) may each be taken twice for credit if the topics of the courses are different.
